

Web Site	Description
Education, Training and Career	Beconplien
www.babcockinternational.com/markets/training/vo cational-training/	The UK's Largest Provider of Work-Based Training. Delivering high quality government-funded and commercial training programmes within the workplace.
babcock respect people and value their diversity	Our Equality, Diversity & Inclusion policy is aimed at all Babcock Skills & Learning's customers and reflects the core values and guiding principles of 'being babcock' and 'All together different – diversity at Babcock', the company ethos for equality, diversity and inclusion.
trusted to deliver TM Tel: 0800 731 8199	Babcock believes that fairness and equality of opportunity are a fundamental human right for all. We wholeheartedly support the principles of equal opportunity and diversity for all, including but not limited to: its employees, subcontractors, other stakeholders, partners and customers. In recognition of our commitment, we are proud to be awarded Investors in Diversity, which validates the above, and Matrix status for the quality of our information, advice and guidance provision.
www.babcocktraining.co.uk/theknowledge	'The Knowledge' is an interactive online learning resource, exclusively developed for Babcock learners. It is an immediate and highly visual learning aid giving you access to a fun way of learning to support you on your programme.
The knowledge E The knowledge The knowledge Tel: 0800 731 8199	The Knowledge is built around a city, each building representing a sector delivered by Babcock Training. Once you have entered the building you are zoomed through a lift, where you are able to choose your level/qualification and find resource material relevant to your programme.
	The Knowledge also contains our customer policies on Equality, Diversity and Inclusion, Customer Care, Safeguarding and the Information Charter.
https://skills.big-learning.com/	'BIG-Learning' is an online learning platform, exclusively developed for Babcock learners. It is a highly visual learning aid that will give you access to a variety of interactive learning resources that will support you on your programme.
DIJ LEARNING	Once registered for BIG-Learning you will have access to an online learning programme that has been created specifically to develop the knowledge and understanding for the subject or qualification you are studying.
	At Babcock we understand it's not about the destination, but about the learning journey.
If you have any questions regarding BIG-Learning or accessing the system please then please email: onlinelearning@babcockinternational.com	BIG-Learning also contains our customer policies on Equality, Diversity and Inclusion, Customer Care, Safeguarding and the Information Charter.
https://www.babcockavol.co.uk/BabcockAvol/JVSe arch.aspx	Apprenticeship and Traineeship vacancies advertised by Babcock.
Apprenticeships Traineeships	In addition to our own internal vacancies we work with many of our employer partners across the UK to assist in the recruitment of apprentices and trainees on their behalf, to search and apply for these vacancies please go to the BabcockAvol website or call 0800 731 8199.
www.careerswales.com/en/	Apprenticeship Matching Service (AMS) found on Careers Wales for vacancies advertised by Babcock.
careerswales.com	Content available in English and Welsh language.
Tel: 0800 028 4844 (from a landline) or 029 2090 6800 (from a mobile)	Careerswales.com provides tools and resources along with information on jobs and training, pathways, careers advice, educational courses and events calendar.

All together different DIVERSITY AT BABCOCK

Information, Advice and Guidance

Web Site	Description
www.economy-ni.gov.uk/ Department for the Economy	Northern Ireland's Employment and skills programmes (including apprenticeships): Advice for jobseekers and employers on employment and recruitment programmes that aim to deliver a skilled workforce to meet the needs of the Northern Ireland economy. Further Education: Advice on all aspects of further education including policy, courses, how to apply and financial support available.
https://www.nidirect.gov.uk/campaigns/careers pice of the services Tel. 0300 200 7820 (Mon-Fri 9.00 am to 5.00 pm)	Northern Ireland's careers advice is only part of the many services offered by nidirect, which includes a Chat online with a careers adviser service. Other educational IAG include: 14-19: education, employment and training options Adult learning Careers Education and jobs abroad Higher education Pre-school development and learning Schools, learning and development Skills to succeed
www.myworldofwork.co.uk/	My World of Work has been developed by Skills Development Scotland as part of the Scottish Government's commitment to an all-ages careers service. My World of Work is online to help you through every stage of your working life, from school right up until you retire. Includes feature articles on a wide range of topics like choosing a career, learning and training, applying for jobs and making a career change.
www.myjobscotland.gov.uk/home/	myjobscotland is the national shared recruitment portal for Scotland's 32 local authorities. The recruitment portal has been designed to provide easy access to local authority jobs across the country and in doing so they have worked with the Equality and Human Rights Commission, the Scottish Human Rights Commission, the Equality Network and the Scottish Councils Equality Network, to ensure the site meets the needs of everyone.
nationalcareersservice.direct.gov.uk/Pages/Home.a spx National Careers Service Homeson A Tel: 0800 100 900	The National Careers Service provides information, advice and guidance to help you make decisions on learning, training and work opportunities. The service offers confidential and impartial advice. This is supported by qualified careers advisers.
www.rathboneuk.org Rathbone Tel: 0800 731 5321	Rathbone is dedicated to working with young people who very often have not been successful in their secondary education. Many such young people require access to education and training opportunities that are tailored specifically to their learning and social support needs.
www.campaign-for-learning.org.uk/cfl/index.asp CAMPAIGN FOR LEARNING Start row - don't stop	We are all born eager to learn. But for too many of us, our enthusiasm for learning wanes as we get older. To create a learning society, we must remain keen learners throughout our lives. The Campaign for Learning believes this can only happen when learning is understood, valued and accessible to everyone, as a right.
WWW.prospects.ac.uk Prospects the UK's official graduate careers website	Graduate Prospects is the UK's leading provider of information, advice and opportunities to students and graduates. They publish a wide collection of journals and directories, as well as provide an extensive graduate careers website.

Web Site	Description
www.dfes.gov.uk/	Description The Department for Education is responsible for education and Department Tel: 0870 000 2288 for Education	children's services in England. They work to achieve a highly educated society in which opportunity is equal for children and young people, no matter what their background or family circumstances.
www.gov.uk/government/organisations/department- for-business-innovation-skills	This gov.uk site gives access to tools and guidance for business, jobs and pensions. Learn about export control. Find business finance and grants and get export support. Information about How the Government works.
www.gov.uk/browse/education	This gov.uk site will help if you are at school, planning to go on to further or higher education, looking for training or interested in a student or career development loan.
www.princes-trust.org.uk Tel: 0800 842 842 Prince's Trust	The Princes Trust helps 13-30 year olds to develop confidence, learn new skills and get into work.
WWW.bbc.co.uk/radio1/advice BBC Advice Helping you get through life	Explore the BBC's Advice site; including A-Z Fact files , on matters ranging from School, Studying and Work, Health & Wellbeing, Bullying, Racism and Law, Money & Your World sections.
Debt Help
www.nationaldebtline.co.uk/	The National Debt Line provides free confidential and independent advice on how to deal with debt problems. Refer to website as advice differs for each country – esp. NI.
www.hmrc.gov.uk/	HMRC are the UK's tax authority. Responsible for making sure
HM Revenue & Customs	that the money is available to fund the UK's public services and for helping families and individuals with targeted financial support.
See website for applicable Tel. number or email	Refer to HMRC Contact Us page to access the telephone number or email address per your type of query.
	Also see, HMRC services for customers with particular needs: www.hmrc.gov.uk/contactus/particular-needs.htm
Age – protected by the Equality Act 2010 www.ageuk.org.uk/	Age UK works to improve later life for everyone by providing life-
Tel: 0800 169 6565	Age UK also have specific information on Age Discrimination and Rights. Age discrimination is unlawful in employment, training and education. They can explain what the new rights are and who they apply to.

Web Site	Description
Disability – protected by the Equality Act 201
www.scope.org.uk/support/disabled-people/local- advice	Disability Information and Advice Line (DIAL) services are run for and by disabled people. Every year, DIALs support around half a million disabled people. DIAL information and advice services are based throughout England and Wales. They provide information and advice to disabled people and others on all aspects of living with disability. DIAL groups give information and advice on: welfare benefits, community care, equipment, independent living, mobility and transport, discrimination, holidays, and much more.
http://patient.info/health Patient Patient Trusted medical information and support	Patient is one of the most trusted medical resources online, supplying evidence based information on a wide range of medical and health topics to patients and health professionals. Please refer to their A-Z on health as it is particularly comprehensive, not only giving you information about illnesses or disability, it also provides a wealth of condition-specific support sites, some examples included below.
Example support site: www.macmillan.org.uk/ WE ARE MACMILLAN CANCER SUPPORT Tel: 0808 808 00 00	Cancer or being associated with someone that has cancer is protected under the Equality Act 2010. Macmillan are a source of practical and/or emotional support, helping with all the things that people affected by cancer want and need. It's not only patients who live with cancer, Macmillan also help carers, families and communities. Please also refer to the Patient Info site which leads to multiple support lines were you or a family member can get advice and support.
Example support site: www.tht.org.uk/	HIV or AIDS or being associated with someone that has HIV or AIDS is protected under the Equality Act 2010. The Terrence Higgins Trust (THT) is the largest voluntary sector provider of HIV and sexual health services in the UK, running services out of local centres across Great Britain. Their local services fall into three areas: long term condition management; health improvement and clinical services. Please also refer to the Patient Info site which leads to multiple support lines where you or a family member can get advice and support.
Example support site: www.mssociety.org.uk/	Multiple Sclerosis (MS) or being associated with someone that has MS is protected under the Equality Act 2010. MS can be tough to deal with. Whether you have MS yourself or you're close to someone who does, it can throw a lot at you, often without warning. You don't have to face it on your own. The MS Society can help you get the right support. Please also refer to the Patient Info site which leads to multiple support lines where you or a family member can get advice and support.
Example support site: www.changingfaces.org.uk/Home Changing the way you face disfigurement Tel: 0300 012 0275	Severe disfigurement or being associated with someone that has a severe disfigurement is protected under the Equality Act 2010. Causes of disfigurements fall into two main categories: congenital and acquired. Changing Faces is a charity for people and families who are living with conditions, marks or scars that affect their appearance. Their aims are to Change Lives and Change Minds.

Web Site	Description
	e individual if they have or are willing to see their doctor first.
Disability – Mental Health and Addictions	e individual if they have of are willing to see their doctor first.
www.mind.org.uk/help	Mind are a mental health charity who provide advice and support on a complete range of mental health topics; refer to their A-Z www.mind.org.uk/mental health a-z for better mental health Info Line: 0300 123 3393	 includes information and advice on: anxiety, bipolar disorder, depression and postnatal depression, self-harm, eating disorders, sleep problems and medication information. They campaign to improve services, raise awareness and promote understanding.
https://www.mind.org.uk/workplace/workplace- wellbeing-wales/	Mind Cymru have produced free downloadable resources which are now available online to support people in the workplace who may be experiencing mental health problems.
http://www.remploy.co.uk/info/20014/in_work/450/s upporting_apprentices Remploy Putting ability first Tel: 0300 456 8210	 This free service supports apprentices who are feeling low, upset and struggling to keep up with their apprenticeship. It is completely confidential and run by fully trained professionals with expertise in mental health. To qualify for this service, individuals must: Be in an apprenticeship (attending or signed off sick) Have a mental health condition that has resulted in absence, or is causing difficulties to remain in their apprenticeship www.rcpsych.ac.uk/healthadvice/problemsdisorder s/copingafteratraumaticevent.aspx	Although not a helpline, this site gives an excellent insight into trauma indicators, coping strategies or helping someone to cope after a traumatic event eg bereavement, illness or accident. The site also includes podcasts of people talking about their experiences of living with depression, bipolar and many other psychiatric and mental health problems. Their comprehensive A-Z Index is available in English, 25 other language translations , plus British Sign Language (BSL). There's also further reading and resources about Trauma available within: http://www.trauma-pages.com/trauma.php.
www.talktofrank.com/home_html.aspx	Call their National Drugs Helpline regarding drug issues - 24 hours a day, 365 days a year advice. FRANK is around to give you FREE confidential advice about drugs. Just click or call to get in touch with local and national services that can provide counseling and treatment. Knowing what others have gone through can help you deal with your situation.
ukna.org/ Narcotics Anonymous United Kingdom Tel: 0300 999 1212	The UKNA Helpline is often the first point of contact for people needing support and advice about the nature of drug addiction. Anyone from the using addict, their friends and family members are welcome to call. UKNA also provide face-to-face group, resources and online meetings.
www.turning-point.co.uk URNING FOINT Turning T	Turning Point is a charitable organisation which provides help to people with drugs problems, alcoholism, mental health troubles and learning disabilities. Offers drop-in centres and residential services. Local telephone numbers are located in your local directory or from their website.
www.release.org.uk Tel: 020 7324 2989	RELEASE is a voluntary organisation that gives 24hr advice to drug users, their families and friends. It specialises in drugs, the law and human rights.
www.alcoholics-anonymous.org.uk/ Tel: 0800 9177650	Alcoholism is a rough word to deal with. Yet nobody is too young (or too old) to have trouble with alcohol. That's because alcoholism is an illness. It can hit anyone. If you need help with a drinking problem either phone their national help line on 0800 9177650 or email: help@alcoholics-anonymous.org.uk .

Information, Advice and Guidance

Useful websites for you to access

Web Site	Description
www.al-anonuk.org.uk/ Tel: 020 7403 0888	Al-Anon and Ala-teen's aim is to help families and friends of alcoholics recover from the effects of living with the problem of drinking of a friend or relative. Alateen is aimed at young people (aged 12-20) who are affected by a problem drinker. Their Helpline is open 10am - 10pm, 365 days a year.
www.nhs.uk/Livewell/alcohol/Pages/Alcoholsupport .aspx NHS choices Tel: 0300 123 1110	Livewell includes lots of useful information and advice, they recommend Drinkline as a national alcohol helpline. If you're worried about your own or someone else's drinking, you can call this free helpline, in complete confidence.
www.gamblersanonymous.org.uk/ Gamblers Anonymous (UK) Tel: Local points of contact via the website	GA is a free organisation which is run by ex-gamblers. They provide help to people who want to stop gambling through therapy held at local Gamblers Anonymous meetings. They offer GA Meetings where you can sit with other compulsive gamblers and share support and strength by talking to each other about the issues surrounding a compulsive gambler in today's society.
www.gamcare.org.uk/	GamCare's staff are dedicated and experienced professionals, helping problem gamblers and their friends and families. They work directly helping problem gamblers, providing advice on the phone and online or face to face counselling. They also have an education and prevention team working to raise awareness and prevent problem gambling before it starts.
smokefree.nhs.uk/	NHS Choices website for help and advice on giving up smoking.
Disability – Visual and Hearing Impairments www.rnib.org.uk	RNIB is a charity who have three clear priorities:
Tel: 0303 123 9999 Email: helpline@rnib.org.uk	 Stopping people losing their sight unnecessarily. Supporting blind and partially sighted people to live independently. Creating an inclusive society.
www.actiononhearingloss.org.uk/	Action on Hearing Loss want a world where hearing loss doesn't limit or label people, where tinnitus is silenced – and where people value and look after their hearing.
www.hearinglink.org/home Hearing Clink	Hearing Link is the UK organisation for people with hearing loss & their families. They make it easy to find information, services & support, and to connect with others to share experiences & advice. Contact them in a variety of ways for all regions: www.hearinglink.org/contactus
Disability – Carers www.carersuk.org/ Recarersuk www.carersuk.org/ Recarersuk Carers UK: Tel: 0808 808 7777 (England, Wales, Scotland) Tel: 028 9043 9843	Carers UK provide information, advice and support for carers. By bringing carers together, they provide a stronger voice which shapes their campaigns to make life better for carers and influences policy makers, employers and service providers, to help improve carers' lives.
www.carers.org/ NI, Scotland, Wales	Carers Trust works to improve support, services and recognition for anyone living with the challenges of caring, unpaid, for a family member or friend who is ill, frail, disabled or has mental health or addiction problems. email support@carers.org or post a question on their discussion boards.
revitalise.org.uk/ Revitalise Respite holidays for disabled people and carers	Revitalise is a national charity providing respite care in a holiday setting for disabled people and carers for over 50 years. Revitalise also offers inspirational opportunities for volunteers through one of the largest and most diverse volunteering programmes of any UK charity.

© Babcock

matrix

C221/16

Information, Advice and Guidance

Useful websites for you to access

Being Dyslexic is a website and forum for anyone with dyslexia, or anyone interested in dyslexia, it provides a supportive environment to discuss and learn about dyslexia and also hosts one of the largest dyslexia community forums.
The vision of the British Dyslexia Association is a dyslexia friendly society enabling all dyslexic people to reach their potential. They campaign and lobby for long lasting and sustainable change for the benefit of dyslexic people, provide impartial and objective advice and support to dyslexic people and those with whom they come into contact, and promote research. Their website also includes information about other Specific Learning Difficulties in Adults.
The Dyslexic Foundation was set up to support dyslexic people. It focuses on those who need practical support and information in an accessible format.
The main aim of AADD-UK is in raising awareness of ADHD in adulthood. Their site includes lots of useful information and links to resources and UK wide support groups .
Aiming to break down the economic and social barriers and prejudices that people with learning disabilities face throughout their lives, as well as providing information, resources and services that can help people to lead fuller, more independent lives. Their A-Z site provides a complete guide to learning disabilities, topical issues and sources of support.
Alzheimer's Research UK is the UK's leading dementia research charity. As research experts, they fund world-class, pioneering scientists at leading universities to find preventions, treatments and a cure for dementia. Email: enquiries@alzheimersresearchuk.org The Alzheimer's Society is a membership organisation, which works to improve the quality of life of people affected by dementia in England, Wales and Northern Ireland. Many of their 20,000 members have personal experience of dementia, as carers, health professionals or people with dementia themselves, and their experiences help to inform their work work.
ected by the Equality Act 2010 Gendered Intelligence is a community interest company that looks to engage people in debates about gender. They work predominantly within young people's settings and have educative aims. They respect that young trans people's lives are rich and diverse, including their gender identity, sexuality, age, abilities and disabilities, ethnic background, faith and beliefs.
Mermaids provides support for families, teenagers and children with gender identity issues. The site also includes information, links and support groups for over 19 yrs.

matrix

Useful websites for you to access

Web Site	Description
Sexual Orientation (LGBT) – protected by the	•
Www.stonewall.org.uk/ Stonewall the technik, gay and bilexaal chainty Tel: 08000 50 20 20	Stonewall works to achieve equality and justice for lesbians, gay men and bisexual people. They do this in a number of different ways: Policy development, cultural and attitudinal change, lobbying for legal change, providing information, good practice design and advice.
www.lgbtconsortium.org.uk/ Consortium of lesbian, gay, bisexual & transgendered voluntary and community organisations E-mail: admin@lgbtconsortium.org.uk	A national specialist infrastructure and membership organisation. They focus on the development and support of LGBT groups, organisations and projects so they can deliver direct services and campaign for individual rights. Their roles include: Support - provide advice, information and guidance. Share - develop networks and partnerships. Shout - represent and provide a voice for LGBT organisations and groups. Store - gather and collate information and research.
switchboard.lgbt/ Tel: 0300 330 0630 Open 10am – 11pm Every day	Switchboard provide non-judgemental information, support and referral service for lesbians, gay men and bisexual and trans people – and anyone considering issues around their sexuality and/or gender identity.
WWW.pflag.co.uk/	"PFLAG" stands for Parents, Friends (& family) of Lesbians and Gays. They provide free information and support for parents, friends & family of lesbian and gay people in the UK. They have free resources for parents of gay children, information for friends and family of gay and lesbian people, as well as useful links and general support.
www.regard.org.uk/	The national organisation of Disabled Lesbians, Gay Men, Bisexuals and Transgendered People, also known as Regard. It was founded in 1989. They aim to raise awareness of disability issues within the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgendered (LGBT) communities, and to raise awareness of sexuality issues within the disability communities. They also work to combat social isolation amongst our membership, and to campaign on issues specifically affecting disabled LGBT people.
www.bisocialnetwork.com/ Bi Social Network Touching Lives. When It Matters.	Bi Social Network exists to work with underserved diverse communities, provide a voice in entertainment, news and opinion on social issues such as mental health education, poverty and homelessness, marginalized groups and the elderly.
www.lgbtyouth.org.uk Tel: 07781 481 788	LGBT Youth Scotland is a national youth organisation working towards the inclusion of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender young people in Scotland. Providing a range of services and opportunities for young people, families and professionals. LGBT Youth Scotland runs youth groups, provides online information and advice, provides one to one support, delivers training, carries out schools work, and offers volunteering opportunities for adults and young people.
Equality and Human Rights Commission http://www.equalityhumanrights.com/ Equality and Human Rights Commission	The Equality and Human Rights Commission have a statutory remit to promote and monitor human rights; and to protect, enforce and promote equality across the nine protected characteristics/grounds - age, disability, gender, race, religion and belief, pregnancy and maternity, marriage and civil partnership, sexual orientation and gender reassignment. Also, refer to: country specific sites for Scotland and Wales (in English) and in Welsh language. For Northern Ireland refer to: http://www.equalityni.org/Home .

matrix

Useful websites for you to access

Web Site	Description
Welfare and Safeguarding (see page 5 for mo
All All different DIVERSITY AT BABCOCK	Babcock believes that it is always unacceptable for anyone to experience abuse of any kind and recognises its responsibility to safeguard the welfare and wellbeing of all learners or associates. This organisation is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of individuals and groups and expects all employees, our representatives, learners and employer partners to share this commitment. All complaints, allegations or suspicions will be taken seriously, are recorded and action taken accordingly, and where appropriate signposting given to external specialist organisations. (Extracts from our Welfare & Safeguarding Policy)
All issues relating to a medical concern, please ask the	individual if they have or are willing to see their doctor first.
www.bullying.co.uk/	Bullying.co.uk is one of the UK's leading anti-bullying website and a destination for parents, children and schools to come for help. The website provides support for a wide range of bullying issues including; cyberbullying, sexual bullying and bullying at school and work. A bullying forum and confidential e-mail support and chat facilities are provided. The site is part of the Family Lives support group. You can chat online or call their free
Tel: 0808 800 2222	phone number: 0808 800 2222.
www.samaritans.org/ UK-wide samaritans-yng-nghymru Site in Welsh language SAMARITANS Tel: 08457 90 90 90 (24/7, call charges apply) Welsh Language Line: 0300 123 3011 (from 7pm - 11pm only, 7 days a week)	Samaritans is available UK-wide, 24/7, to all ages, and provide confidential emotional support for people who are experiencing feelings of distress or despair, including those which may lead to suicide. They know a lot about what can help you through tough times. They can help you explore your options, understand your problems better, or just be there to listen. It doesn't matter who you are, how you feel, or what has happened. If you feel that things are getting to you, get in touch.
www.mind.org.uk/help www.mind.org.uk/help for better mental health Info Line: 0300 123 3393 Wales: https://www.mind.org.uk/workplace/workplace- wellbeing-wales/	Mind are a mental health charity who provide advice and support on a complete range of mental health topics; refer to their A-Z www.mind.org.uk/mental_health_a-z - includes information and advice on: anxiety, bipolar disorder, depression and postnatal depression, self-harm, eating disorders, sleep problems and medication information. They campaign to improve services, raise awareness and promote understanding. Mind Cymru have produced free downloadable resources which are now available online to support people in the workplace who may be experiencing mental health problems.
http://www.remploy.co.uk/info/20014/in_work/450/s upporting_apprentices Remploy Putting ability first Tel: 0300 456 8210	 This free service supports apprentices who are feeling low, upset and struggling to keep up with their apprenticeship. It is completely confidential and run by fully trained professionals with expertise in mental health. To qualify for this service, individuals must: Be in an apprenticeship (attending or signed off sick) Have a mental health condition that has resulted in absence, or is causing difficulties to remain in their apprenticeship
www.papyrus-uk.org/ PAPYRUS prevention of young suicide Call HOPElineUK: 0800 068 41 41	Every year many hundreds of young people take their own lives in the UK. Many thousands more contemplate suicide; many harm themselves or suffer alone, afraid to speak openly about how they are feeling. Papyrus (website) provide confidential support and advice to young people and anyone worried about a young person. A national helpline, HOPELineUK, including text and email services, is staffed by a team of mental health professionals who provide practical help and advice to vulnerable young people and to those concerned about any young person who may be at risk of suicide.

matrix

All together different DIVERSITY AT BABCOCK Information, Advice and Guidance

Web Site	Description
http://www.themix.org.uk/	Description "The Mix" replaces "TheSite.org" and "YouthNet" and is an online guide to life for 16-25 year-olds in the UK. They provide non-judgmental support and information on everything from sex and exam stress to debt and drugs. Emotional support is available 24 hours a day. You can chat about anything you like on their moderated discussion boards and live chat room; browse over 2000 articles and videos full of facts you can trust; read about the experiences of other young people in their True Life section or ask trained advisors about friends, dating, love or family life. Their service is free and totally confidential. They also have a free online App called "Stressheads", which has been designed as a fun-to-use distraction tool for young people to turn to when they are feeling under pressure.
www.childline.org.uk/	ChildLine is the UK's free, 24-hour helpline 0800 1111 for children in distress or danger. Bullying and Cyber/Online Bullying can happen to anyone at any age. No one has the right to hurt you or make you feel bad, and if you are being bullied you don't have to put up with it. Find out more about bullying and the help available.
www.nspcc.org.uk/html/home/home.htm Cruelty to children must stop. FULL STOP NSPCC* Tel: 0808 800 5000	The NSPCC Helpline provides advice and support to adults who are concerned about the safety or welfare of a child. They are available 24/7 by phone and online. It's free and you don't have to say who you are. They provide services in several languages, and also for deaf and hard-of-hearing people. Their and our vision is to end cruelty to children in the UK. They campaign to change the law, provide ChildLine and the NSPCC helpline service, offer advice for adults, and much more. Find out more about our work and how you can get involved.
www.nspcc.org.uk/preventing-abuse/child-abuse- and-neglect/female-genital-mutilation-fgm/ NSPCC Tel: 0800 028 3550 or email fmghelp@nspcc.org.uk	Female Genital Mutilation (FGM) or Cutting (FGC) amounts to torture and risks the health and lives of girls and women. The continued practice of FGM in Britain is therefore a clear violation of the rights of girls and women. Call or email the NSPCC FGM helpline if you're worried a child is at risk of, or has had, FGM. It's free, anonymous and available 24/7. There are also many other specialist FGM services provided by the NHS all around the country, and many specialist charities, such as Forward , Southall Black Sisters , Orchid Project who are dedicated to supporting victims of this crime, and speaking up on the issue to prevent it happening further.
www.nspcc.org.uk/fighting-for-childhood/news- opinion/protecting-children-from-radicalisation Tel: 0808 800 5000 or email help@nspcc.org.uk www.nspcc.org.uk/preventing-abuse/child-abuse- and-neglect/child-trafficking/	The NSPCC helpline will provide support to adults who have concerns about children and young people being radicalised or who need advice on how to talk to their children about issues related to terrorism. NSPCC helpline practitioners have been trained to spot the warning signs of radicalisation so they can advise adults who are worried about a child being groomed. Child trafficking is child abuse. Children are recruited, moved or transported and then exploited, forced to work or sold. They are often subject to multiple forms of exploitation. Many children are trafficked into the UK from abroad, but children can also be trafficked from one part of the UK to another.
Tel: 0808 800 5000 or email help@nspcc.org.uk napac.org.uk/ Tel: 0808 801 0331 10am-9pm Mon-Thu & 10am-6pm on Fridays	Please contact NSPCC if you have any suspicion or knowledge of child trafficking. Supporting recovery from child abuse. The damage caused by child abuse doesn't always end in childhood. NAPAC (the National Association for People Abused in Childhood) offers support to adult survivors of all types of childhood abuse, including physical, sexual, emotional abuse or neglect.

Web Site	Description
www.salvationarmy.org.uk/human-trafficking	The Salvation Army are a Christian Church and Charity who offer a wide range of practical and emotional support online, by telephone or at local centres across the UK and Ireland. Along with a wide range of services, they are committed to supporting victims - both men and women - of modern slavery. Their specialist support programme is designed to preserve the dignity of victims, protect and care for them in safe accommodation, and provide access to confidential client-based support services to give victims the space to reflect, recover and rebuild their
Tel: 0300 303 8151	lives. They are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
http://hopeforjustice.org/united-kingdom/united- kingdom-in-depth/ HOPE JUSTICE Tel: 0845 519 7402 Mon-Fri 9am – 5.30pm	Hope for Justice is an international organisation who's aim is to bring an end to human trafficking and slavery, in our generation. They have an expert team of specialists who provide training for front-line professionals, identification and rescue of victims, and advocacy and restoration to help victims become survivors and then 'over-comers' with a renewed sense of hope and purpose for their future.
www.saferinternet.org.uk/	The UK Safer Internet Centre has multiple e-safety tips, advice and resources to help children and young people stay safe on the internet.
UK Safer Internet Centre	People can email their Helpline: helpline@saferinternet.org.uk if someone experiences cyberbullying or has a digital safety concern such as hacking, online grooming, extremism or radicalisation (Babcock staff to follow internal Prevent process).
Tel: 0844 381 4772	Their " Need help?" page contains links where you can report grooming or other illegal behaviour; report criminal content such as child sexual abuse images, online terrorism or hate speech; report inappropriate media content and scams. There's lots of great advice for children, young people, adults and parents.
www.victimsupport.org.uk/ Victing Victor Constraints of the strength Support line: 0808 16 89 111	Victim Support is the independent charity which helps people cope with the effects of crime. At Local and National levels, they provide free and confidential, practical and emotional support and guidance to help you deal with your experience. Crime impacts people in different ways. This is why their specially trained staff contact victims and spend time speaking to them to find out what kind of support they might benefit from to help them cope with the effects of crime and move on with their lives.
www.familylives.org.uk/ family family lives Regional numbers apply: www.familylives.org.uk/about/contact-us/ National Helpline: 0808 800 2222	Family Lives is a charity with over three decades of experience helping parents to deal with the changes that are a constant part of family life. They recognise that the best way to support families is to provide professional, non-judgmental support and advice in a way that all members of the family can freely access. They provide support around family breakdown, aggression in the home, bullying, risky teenage behaviour and mental health concerns of both parents and their children. Their helpline is 24 hour, extensive advice and links via their website, email and live chat services, befriending services, and parenting/relationship support groups. Nearly all of their services are accessible at no charge 365 days a year.

All together different DIVERSITY AT BABCOCK Information, Advice and Guidance

Web Site	Description
www.gingerbread.org.uk/ Gingerbread Single parents, equal families Tel: 0808 802 0925	Gingerbread provides advice and practical support for single parents. Their helpline includes support and expert advice on anything from dealing with a break-up, to going back to work or sorting out maintenance, benefit or tax credit issues. Friendly advisers will talk through your options and will send you useful information. Their website is packed full of useful information and online advice sessions. They also campaign to improve the lives of all single parent families. And because they're a national charity, it's all free.
	Gingerbread offers advice for single parents from England and Wales. If you are a single parent living in Scotland please contact One Parent Families Scotland or if you live in Northern Ireland contact Gingerbread NI .
www.thesilverline.org.uk/ The Silver Line helpline for older people 0800 4 70 80 90	 The Silver Line is the confidential, free helpline for older people across the UK* open every day and night of the year. Their specially trained helpline staff: Offer information, friendship and advice Link callers to local groups and services Offer regular befriending calls Protect and support those who are suffering abuse and neglect www.thesilverline.org.uk/what-we-do/silver-line- scotland/	As above, *Silver Line Scotland will be delivered by Age Scotland in partnership with The Silver Line during week days, 8am – 8pm. At all other times calls will be answered at the nation helpline HQ.
http://www.elderabuse.org.uk/Mainpages/Abuse/ab use.html Tel: 080 8808 8141	Action on Elder Abuse (AEA) works to protect, and prevent the abuse of older adults. Their confidential free phone helpline provides information, advice and support to victims and others who are concerned about or have witnessed abuse.
www.rapecrisis.org.uk/	Rape Crisis Centres provide a range of specialist services for any one that has been raped or experienced another form of sexual violence - whether as adults or as children. There is also information for family, friends, students and professionals.
england.shelter.org.uk/advice/ Shelter The housing and homelessness charity	Shelter is a charity that works to alleviate the distress caused by homelessness and bad housing. They do this by giving advice, information and advocacy to people in housing need, and by campaigning for lasting political change to end the housing crisis for good. Shelter provides free, confidential advice to people with all kinds of housing problems through their online housing information and their face to face local services .
www.b-eat.co.uk/Home Helpline: 0345 634 1414 Youthline 0345 634 7650	b-eat.co.uk is an organisation who can offer advice if you or someone you know is affected by an eating disorder.

Useful websites for you to access

Web Site	Description
www.refuge.org.uk/	Support for women, men, teens and children, including:
	A network of refuges across the country
Dofusio	 Independent domestic violence advocacy
Refuge	Child support workers
->111	Outreach services
	Culturally specific services
For women and children.	The Gaia Centre (London)
Against domestic violence.	The Athena service (London)
Tel: 0808 2000 247	Refuge advises and provides practical and emotional support for
Tel: 0808 2000 247	victims of domestic violence, FGM, Forced marriage and 'honour'-based violence . Their National Domestic Violence Helpline is in partnership with women's aid.
www.womensaid.org.uk/	Women's Aid provides help and support for those suffering from ware a stat	domestic violence.
women's aid	Their website provides an A-Z of topics, including other resources and regional support services.
until women & children are safe	resources and regional support services.
Tel: 0808 2000 247
www.mensaid.com/	Men's Aid provides support, practical information, advice on
Men's Aid	solicitors and local domestic abuse projects, to male sufferers of domestic violence.
SS MA	The aim being to help and support all men suffering any form of Domestic Abuse	abuse or discrimination. Men's Aid is run and supported by a
C67/12/23/9986 Tel: 0871 22/3 9986	group of concerned parents and professionals.
www.mensadviceline.org.uk/mens_advice.php.html	The Men's Advice Line is a confidential helpline and email service for men (heterosexual or same-sex) who experience
Men's Advice Line	domestic violence from their partners or ex-partners.
experiencing domestic violence
Tel: 0808 801 0327
www.ncdv.org.uk/	The National Centre for Domestic Violence (NCDV) provides a free, fast emergency injunction service to survivors of domestic Protection for all, Now	violence regardless of their financial circumstances, race, Domestic Violence 0844 8044 999	gender or sexual orientation. Their service allows anyone to apply for an injunction within 24 hours of first contact (in most circumstances).
Tel: 0844 80 44 999 or Freephone:0800 970 2070	, www.bpas.org/bpaswoman	The British Pregnancy Advisory Service offers information, advice and treatment with a range of services linked with bpas	pregnancy and fertility control. There is a central appointment
Tel: 08457 30 40 30	booking service and all appointments are confidential.
www.fpa.org.uk/
www.fpa.org.uk/	fpa is a service which provides straightforward information, advice and support to all people across the UK on all aspects of sexual health, sex and relationships. Ring them for confidential ()	information on:
Tel: 0845 122 8690 /	contraception
0845 310 1334	sexually transmitted infections planning a pregnancy
putting sexual health on the agenda	pregnancy choices sexual health and wellbeing
	The website has a 24hr local clinic search engine.
www.brook.org.uk/	Brook is an organisation with local branches that offer
-	contraceptive advice to young people under 25. Local addresses
Brook Tel: 0808 802 1234	can be found in local directories and on their website.
putting young people first
© Babcock Page 1	3 of 15 Issue Date: 24.05.17 C221/16

Information, Advice and Guidance

Web Site		Description
www.ashiana.org.uk/ Image: Comparison of the state of the	oppression, fear and vi organisation based in I	one has the right to live a life free of iolence. They are a charitable _ondon, to help women from the Asian, nunity get help when they need it.
www.southallblacksisters.org.uk/ Southall Black Sisters Black Sisters	organisation, was esta Black (Asian and Africa highlight and challenge against women, empor	a not-for-profit, secular and inclusive blished in 1979 to meet the needs of an-Caribbean) women. Their aims are to all forms of gender related violence wer them to gain more control over their of violence and assert their human rights freedom.
www.cruse.org.uk/		are offers support after the death of remail helpline@cruse.org.uk .
Cruse Bereavement		group support is delivered by trained volunteers across the UK.
Care Helpline (England, Wales, NI): 0844 477 9400 (weekdays 9:30am–5pm) Scotland: 0845 600 2227	They also offer informa children.	ation, publications, and support for www.nhs.uk/Pages/HomePage.aspx	NHS Choices has beco	ome the biggest and most visited health
NHS choices Your health, your choices	information website in	Europe.
www.nhsdirect.nhs.uk/	NHS Direct for health a 365 days a year.	advice and reassurance, 24 hours a day,
www.show.scot.nhs.uk/ www.hscni.net/ www.wales.nhs.uk/	- Scotland - Northern Ireland - Wales
www.citizensadvice.org.uk/ - UK site leading into		Ip website has practical, reliable regional information	information to help you	i solve your problems.
citizens advice	languages. The information is cont and covers the law in E Wales. Call them or us help on: Benefits, Worl	e frequently asked questions in other tinually reviewed by a team of advisers England, Northern Ireland, Scotland and e their regional sites for region-specific k, Debt and money, Consumer,
Note: call charges apply: England site - call 03444 111 444 or local Wales site - call 03444 77 20 20	Relationships, Housing, Law and rights, Discrimination, Tax, Healthcare, Education, plus much more
Welsh language site Scotland site - call 0808 800 9060 Northern Ireland site		ance on rights and discrimination issues d characteristics of the Equality Act 2010:
	•Age •Disability	•Gender Reassignment •Race
TaxtDalay usara should call 02444 444 445	 Sexual Orientation 	Marriage and Civil Dertherabin
TextRelay users should call 03444 111 445	Religion or Belief	Marriage and Civil Partnership Pregnancy and Maternity Sex

All together

Information, Advice and Guidance

Useful websites for you to access

Web Site	Description
www.mywellbeinghub.co.uk/ mywellbeinghub.co.uk/ your link to better wellbeing	My Wellbeing Hub has been developed by VSP, Acorn, and Babcock to provide you with the information you need for a better wellbeing. The site is open to all and will guide you on the road to a better wellbeing with the help of excellent resources.
LANDER FILS	Look through your Learner 'Induction' Pack or via BIG Learning where you'll find lots more useful information, resources and links regarding Babcock policies, Health and Safety, Forums, Government departments, Trade Unions, Departments of Education, Awarding Organisations, Funding Bodies, Sector Skills Councils and Government Inspectorates.
Utilise internet search engines	Available in all languages, the internet is an invaluable resource for you to search for additional Information Advice and Guidance.
	only a sample of the wide variety of support organisations that are Babcock holds no endorsement or alliance to or for any of the as to their content or suitability.
Babcock employees:
www.cic-eap.co.uk/index.html Tel: 0800 085 1376 Email: assist@cic-eap.co.uk	CiC is Babcock's confidential employee assistance and wellbeing support service, includes: Babcock Managerial Adviceline CiC Babcock EAP Services Overview Employees CiC Babcock staff members - see Connect, S&L HR for login details.
All All different DIVERSITY AT BABCOCK	Babcock Skills & Learning have a dedicated site on our intranet which brings together all of our Equality, Diversity & Inclusion and Welfare & Safeguarding policies, procedures, learning resources, diversity calendar, internal and external contact information, including Diversity Group and Champions. This file which can be used online to access the links or copy to share selected rows of information using the MS Word file. Our All together different page is found on Connect, Skills & Learning.

Babcock Skills & Learning employees should contact their region's Designated Person for Safeguarding or deputy regarding any equality/diversity or welfare/safeguarding issues raised, including what advice and signposting has been given. Records are to be kept on a confidential Diary of Issues form (C199) in full compliance with Babcock security, data protection policy and law.

